	Monuments' Garden Constructed in 2014, the Monuments' Garden commemorates IBA's treasured achievers, those graduates who represent the heart and soul and spirit of IBA. These exceptional individuals, leaders in their chosen professions, have contributed significantly both to their companies and communities while uphololing the values they learned as students at the Institut. They represent the best of our alumni, and stand as exemplary role models to be emulated by future graduates. In addition to honoring them, we hope that the presence of their names on these columns will inspire current and future students to strive for excellence and bring positive change to the world in which we live. Note: 1. Text / content is available at Purchase Office
	2. Specimen can be seen at IBA Main Campus
