Course site / community building, maintenance and organizing platform with the following features:

1. One-window option for faculty members to create their course websites with course details, provision to upload course outline, option for student rating and reviews

2. Option to create / edit resource categories, upload / organize resources (links, documents, images, etc.) within these categories, edit / move / delete resources

3. Set privacy for resource sharing and resource view

4. Publish guest speaker sessions

5. Create student communities and semester wise groups

6. Allow enrolled students to create project profiles and project groups, add members to groups, communicate within groups, organize communication, take notes, submit reports / images / takeaways, upload documents / images, set privacy options for projects and communication threads, publish within the course site with instructor permission

7. Auto-promote course websites to relevant students around the world

8. Enable learners around the world to follow courses of interest and receive updates / notifications from the course instructor and course site contributors

9. Engage alumni with content, broadcast messages

10. Resource sharing option to increase the reach of the course content / course and increase course / institution visibility

11. See stats for Viewers and Followers of course sites

12. Link the course sites to the Institution offering the courses